ANSWER TO COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL ON BEHALF OF
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND ST. JOSEPH MEDICAL CENTER

COMES NOW Defendant, University of Maryland St. Joseph Medical Center (“UMSJMC”), by and through their attorneys, Neal M. Brown, Christina N. Billiet, Kaitlan M. Skrainar, and Waranch & Brown, LLC, and in answer to the Plaintiffs’ Complaint state as follows:

FIRST DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE

The answering Defendant avers that the Complaint is barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

THIRD DEFENSE

The answering Defendant avers that the claims alleged in Plaintiffs’ Complaint are barred by the Plaintiffs’ assumption of the risk.

FOURTH DEFENSE

The answering Defendant avers that the claims alleged in Plaintiffs' Complaint are barred due to the negligence and/or affirmative conduct of others for whom in law this Defendant is not responsible.

FIFTH DEFENSE

The answering Defendant will rely upon all defenses lawfully available to it including, but not limited to, those already asserted herein.

DEFENSES TO COUNT I

1. The answering Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph No. 1.

2. The answering Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph No. 2.

3. The answering Defendant admits that a Statement of Claim was filed and that arbitration was waived. The answering Defendant does not admit that the Certificate and Report of Qualified Expert fulfill the requirements of the Health Care Malpractice Claims Act, Section 3-2A-01 et seq., of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code.

4. The answering Defendant admits that Paula McCabe, CNM, had a duty to comply with the applicable standard of care. The answering Defendant denies the remainder of Plaintiffs' allegations set forth in Paragraph No. 4.

5. The answering Defendant admits that Lauren Arrington, CNM, had a duty to comply with the applicable standard of care. The answering Defendant denies the remainder of Plaintiffs' allegations set forth in Paragraph No. 5.

6. The answering Defendant admits that Steven Lacher, M.D., had a duty to comply with the applicable standard of care. The answering Defendant denies the remainder of Plaintiffs' allegations set forth in Paragraph No. 6.

7. The answering Defendant admits that Arturo Yabut, M.D., had a duty to comply with the applicable standard of care. The answering Defendant denies the remainder of Plaintiffs' allegations set forth in Paragraph No. 7.

8. The answering Defendant admits that the labor and delivery nurses had a duty to comply with the applicable standard of care. The answering Defendant denies the remainder of Plaintiffs' allegations set forth in Paragraph No. 8.

9. The answering Defendant admits that it had a duty to comply with the applicable standards of care. The answering Defendant denies the remainder of Plaintiffs' allegations set forth in Paragraph No. 9.

10. Upon information and belief, the answering Defendant admits that Paula McCabe, CNM, Lauren Arrington, CNM, Steven Lacher, M.D., Arturo Yabut, M.D., Laura Rossbach, RN, Cassia Schmidt, RN, and Debra Rose Edmunds, CRNP, were acting as agents or apparent agents, servants or employees of the answering Defendant. The answering Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remainder of the allegations contained in Paragraph No. 10.

11. The answering Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph No. 11; except, upon information and belief, the answering Defendant admits that, on November 21, 2014, at approximately 10:01 p.m., Crystal Helbig presented to the Labor and Delivery department of UMSJMC.

12. Upon information and belief, the answering Defendant admits the allegations contained in Paragraph No. 12; except, the answering Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegation that “the findings shortly thereafter showed decelerations.”

13. Upon information and belief, the answering Defendant admits the allegations contained in Paragraph No. 13.
